Christian Education

By Sue Milem

In lieu of Vacation Bible School at the church, we are observing social distancing and continuing weekly meetings for children with Rev. Annie via Zoom.

We are planning another delivery to the children this summer.

In the fall we will meet with small groups for activities and Christian education. Small groups will be sponsored for all ages who show interest in meeting. They may be outside or go inside when it is safe. If there is something you are interested in, please give your suggestions to Sue.

Wands for Wildlife Project

by Sheila Micholes

Condit Mission and Outreach Committee is sponsoring a Wands for Wildlife project from now thru September to help the Appalachian Wildlife Refuge in North Carolina.

Old mascara wands are used to remove fly eggs and larva from the fur and feathers of wild animals. Each little critter needs to be cleaned and therefore multiple wands are used for each rescue. Mascara wands work great because the bristles are close together. Please, save your old wands, do not buy new ones – this is a recycling program.

“Wash your used wand in warm soapy Dawn soap to remove all the tracings of mascara from the wand,” notes Sheila Micholes. After it is air dried give it to Sheila who will mail them the last week in September.

Creating Your Own Space for God . . . .

Home Worship Space

Until you are comfortable with meeting in person, Condit hopes you will continue to join the YouTube Worship Service. However your home worship space might feel better if you take steps to make it special. Suggestions are available on page 3.

Outdoor Worship

by Darlene Ross

In the coming weeks when we slowly return to normalcy, your Worship and Music Committee has come up with a plan to help with social distancing and worshipping together again face to face. This plan consists of meeting for worship, weather permitting, outdoors. We are hoping if you feel comfortable returning to face to face worship that you would be able to join us outdoors at the west side of the parking lot between the manse and the ball field. Instead of our church pews we select to sit in, we will be asking you to bring your lawn chairs and (if you have one) a pop up shelter awning to erect in an “X marks the spot” designation. These designations will be placed so to keep our social distancing while still being able to enjoy seeing each other safely during worship.

As we advance into June and are able to make a decision as to when to safely return to somewhat normal worship practices, we will communicate more adjustments needed over the next several weeks to keep all of us safe.

We are looking forward to being able to worship with all of you again sometime soon!

Entering a New Phase

by Rev. Annie Melick

Let me begin this column with a huge thank you! Thank you to Session and Trustees for doing research, reading articles, having thoughtful discussion, praying for wisdom and listening to God, and for keeping all of our church members in mind as we make decisions and plans. Thank you to all of you in our congregation for your patience, flexibility, and willingness to try new things. Thank you to our young adults and youth who have willingly recorded themselves doing Scripture readings for me to include in our worship videos. Thank you to Adam Garner, Director of Music, for providing uplifting music videos during this time. Thank you to my husband Lyle who is my super tech advisor, videographer, video editor, and encourager. Thank you to all who make phone calls, run errands, provide masks, send cards, drop off gifts and surprises to people, etc. You are the church!

Rev. Annie Melick

Church is not closed – the church is the people. Church is open and functioning in new and different ways. We look forward to being able to safely gather onsite at our church building. Session and Trustees have met twice on Zoom to discuss how we can prepare for that. Session voted to use the guidelines for group gatherings to determine when we would consider meeting onsite for worship services again. Once the restriction on group gatherings has been raised to allow groups of up to 50 people to gather, we will wait at least 3 weeks beyond that to watch for stable or declining numbers of cases in our area before we consider having onsite worship services. In addition, we have decided that when we begin offering onsite worship services at Condit, those services will be outdoors, in order to have the safest environment possible. You will be asked to wear masks and bring your own lawn chairs (and canopies if you choose.) We will continue to offer online worship whether we are meeting onsite or not. That way, you will still be able to worship with us whether you are able or ready to meet onsite or not.

As you can imagine, it took a lot of work and preparation to switch gears in March to begin providing online worship services and other meetings. Now we find ourselves in another phase that will require new technology and ways of doing things. As we prepare for the outdoor services we are planning, there are several areas where we have to plan and gear up. Adam and I are working with the Worship and Music Committee to plan services that will follow our usual order of worship, but also be mindful of the unique opportunities and challenges of worshipping outdoors. This involves choosing music that can be played on guitar rather than piano or organ, and practicing that music. It involves planning a different type of children's message that is safe with social distancing. It involves providing a sound system that will work outdoors. It involves marking spots where people may sit so they are socially distanced. And on top of all that, we will go from recording a service ahead of time for YouTube to doing livestreaming. We have a tech team meeting to determine our equipment needs, purchase items, and then setting them up. Please pray for all of us as we prepare to provide simultaneous online and onsite worship services in the future.

Worship- June 2020

Beguiled by Beauty; Cultivating a Life of Contemplation & Compassion

At the time of this writing in May 2020, churches are still meeting for online worship in lieu of onsite services as the world continues to grapple with COVID-19. We are uncertain about what this coming season will look like and when it will be safe to gather together once more, not just for worship, but for so many everyday activities that have been put on pause until further notice. We are facing a time of deep unrest that calls for deep resources to draw from in order to live with wisdom, strength, and peace. Our prayer is that this series enables us to cultivate contemplation and compassion for ourselves and for one another.

At-Home Preparations for Worship

We've compiled some suggestions for participants worshipping from home to make a dedicated worship space to use while you watch our worship video each week. If you'd like to share pictures of the worship space you set up, email them to pastor@conditchurch.org or text them to 440-308-7664.

Gather items to help you create a sanctuary space. Candles, prayer rugs or scarves, bells, pillows, any ritual items that represent your personal connection with the holy...you can get creative here. And this doesn't have to be a permanent spot in your home — you can always repurpose the space for normal use during the week apart from worship.

Wind chimes are an item of focus for this series. There are lots of cool DIY craft ideas for making your own wind chime! Look on Pinterest and Google to find suggestions. You might hang your wind chime somewhere close to your chosen worship spot so it can catch the breeze.

Make signs for each week of the series with messages that affirm our central messages. You could make and decorate cardboard, chalkboard or whiteboard signs to display in your home as a reminder of the worship theme throughout the week, or even simply write these affirmations in a journal and meditate on them. Here is the message to put on your sign for the first week of the series:

Week 1, June 7: Water is life. Water your life so you can water other life... for the beauty of the earth.

[Remaining affirmations coming soon — we will send you updates as we add the other weeks!]

Weekly Scavenger Hunt Activity

If you have children at home, please know that we have prepared a scavenger hunt activity each week for children's time! Parents, you'll want to take a peek at these ideas beforehand and make sure you have the items hidden somewhere in your home for children to find easily when the time comes. Here is the scavenger hunt activity/items for the first week.

Week 1, June 7: Get a cup of water for children to use in watering a plant that is somewhere in your home.

[Remaining children's time activities coming soon — we will send you updates as we add the other weeks!]

Getting to Know You. . . .

Lyle Melick

by Jennie Kavage

In March when the coronavirus pandemic closed the doors of Condit Presbyterian Church another door opened. Thanks to Lyle Melick and the wonders of technology, everyone, member or not, near or far, has been able to experience the Sunday worship service on home computers and mobile phones. The voice of The Rev. Annie Melick presenting the message or lifted in song, the music of Adam Garner and the beautiful stained glass windows of Condit are on Facebook and YouTube for everyone, Sunday and every day.

It is Lyle who films and edits the service for its journey through cyberspace. Husband of The Rev. Annie, he has been involved in digital technology since its early days. He grew up in Sidney, north of Dayton, and earned his Electrical Engineering degree at Ohio Northern University in Ada where he filled his elective opportunities with calculus and physics.

Lyle had been at Ohio Northern just three weeks when he met Annie Coffman from Defiance. In 1982 he graduated, they married and he started his career at ITT North in Delaware, OH, all in the same week. In Delaware he worked on an early prototype for a DSL modem. A couple of years later the company sent him to North Carolina where he worked on the development of digital telephone equipment which, he says, was just starting to “be a thing.” Here twins John and Christy were born.

The next move was to Oberlin where he designed computer boards for a system used in blood analysis. Daughter Elizabeth “Betsy” was born and a few years later Jessica joined the family. Most all the family birthdays are in March and April but Lyle’s birthday comes in January. “I always thought the ‘Age of Aquarius’ was about me,” he notes.

As Annie began following her ministerial call, Lyle began a 20-year run with the IT department in a physicians’ billing group in Cleveland. His responsibilities included keeping the computers updated, networks working and expanding the technical capacity to handle scheduling, payments, insurance and the ability to extract information for reports. Since moving to Sunbury in 2015, he has worked for Jegs and currently for Nationwide Insurance in the actuarial department.

At the church he has worked on an audio-visual system with George Justice and Mike Mucci and others installing monitors on the walls to enhance the day’s message with words to new songs, scripture readings, announcements and special artwork. Sometimes he runs the equipment in the back of the church or it may be Joe Marshall who has learned from Lyle.

“Technology is a tool that helps us serve God; that helps us get the message out.” Lyle explains. “Response to what we’ve done to make the worship service available during this pandemic basically has been positive.

“We’ve reached people who wouldn’t be able to be with us otherwise. Bob Westbrook is exploring how we continue to stay connected after life returns to normal.” (Continue on Page 5)

Condit Blood Drive June 12

Donations will be taken from 1:00 until 5:45 on Friday, June 12, in the Condit Fellowship Hall.

Everyone must enter through the patio. Only donors will be allowed inside, Temperatures will be taken at that point. Masks are required (some will be available if you do not have one) and social distancing will be followed. Ken Bartlett is lending us his canopy so a few people may sit outside if the weather permits. If you arrive early for your appointment, please wait in your car until is it time for you.

Water, juice and packaged chips will be furnished but not other food.

Although the Condit Blood Drive will not look like former drives, we are doing everything we can to make the drive safe for the workers and our donors. Thank you for doing your part.

American Red Cross is having trouble meeting the need for blood, but if you have an appointment and feel you can not meet the requirements, please call Polly at 740-965-3582 before 10 on Friday, June 12.

Lyle Melick Continued from page 4

The last two years Lyle has taken pictures of Vacation Bible School activities and turned them into a slide show for church so parents can see what their children did all week. He has sung in church choirs since he was elementary age and enjoys joining his hearty bass voice to the Condit choir.

Outside church and technology, Lyle says, “I like to try new things. I’ve built a Mountain Dulcimer, a Hammered Dulcimer, learned how to brew beer and built a workbench for the garage. I enjoy science fiction and fantasy literature. I recently joined Masons and am enjoying that, too.”

“My favorite thing, though, is to spend time with Annie.”

April Treasurer’s Report

by Ken Bartlett

Condit family and friends, You deserve a shout out! Through these last few months in lock-down, your support of each other and the church’s finances has been amazing!

Thanks

Our regular offering is approximately 15% more than its four-month budget amount (approximately $5,800 more than budget), and total receipts are approximately $3,900 more than budget.

Overall, expenses are over-budget after four months by approximately $600.

April year-to-date net is approximately $3,300 in the black.

Investments are down 8.5% year-to-date as of April. Investments total approximately $154,000. Total funds available are approximately $183,000 as of the end of April.

June Zoom Meetings

Links to the meetings will be sent the day before the meeting.

Happy Hour on Thursdays, June 4 and June 25, 05:00 p.m. EDT

Let's have some fun, Condit! Grab your favorite beverage and get on the Zoom meeting for happy hour on these two Thursdays in June. The agenda? Conversation! Jokes! Fun!

Communion Service on Zoom – June 7, 11 a.m.

Join Rev. Annie for communion at 11am on June 7. Have bread or a cracker, and something to drink. The service will last about 15 minutes.

Sunday Morning Coffee Hour – June 14, 11 a.m.

Join the Zoom Coffee Hour on June 14. It will be a casual time to see each other's faces and chat.

Condit Kids Zoom – Tuesdays at 1 p.m.

Kids of all ages are welcome to join Condit Kids on Tuesday afternoon. The meeting lasts about 20-30 minutes. Currently, we are trying to learn the Lord's Prayer together. We have fun with each child sharing something about their week, and often we have something for them to find in their house and show to the group.

For Our Children's Children each Tuesday at 10:00 a.m. EDT

Writers' Group recording memories for their grandchildren. Email Pollyho@columbus.rr.com to join group
Log-in information will be emailed day prior to meeting.

Rev. Annie is available for visits and pastoral care in several ways.

Call or text 440-308-7664.

1. We can have conversation and prayer over the phone.
2. We can do a video meeting on Zoom or Facetime.
3. We can meet in person outdoors, provided we can have 6 feet of social distance and wear masks. If you desire a visit in person, call Rev. Annie to set up a time and place. For example, we can meet on your deck or front porch, or at the church for our visit.

TO JOIN IN A VIRTUAL CHOIR.

Adam Garner, music director of Condit Presbyterian in Sunbury is looking to reach out to other choir directors for the formation of a virtual choir! Performances would be shared with all congregations and directors will meet together (virtually) to pick pieces. All those interested can contact me at garneradamp@gmail.com.

for working to pull together a virtual choir. See the note that was in Presbytery E-Blast on page 5 in this newsletter. When you see these on TV or commercials it seems so simple. However, when we pray together on Zoom, you realize how difficult it is to get the different voices together. Thanks for leading the way, Adam.

Why Do We Celebrate Father's Day?

By Polly Horn

On The History Channel website, Dave Roos wrote “William Jackson Smart was a twice-married, twice-widowed Civil War veteran and father of 14 children, one of whom dedicated her life to the creation of Father’s Day in honor of her devoted and selfless dad.”

The story goes that William’s daughter, Sonora Smart Dodd, was attending one of the first official Mother’s Day services in 1909 at her church in Spokane, Washington, when she had an epiphany— “If mothers deserved a day in honor of their loving service, why not fathers?” asked Sonora.

When Sonora was 16, her mother Ellen died in childbirth, leaving William as a single father to Sonora and her five younger brothers. And by Sonora’s account, he performed brilliantly. Many years later in Spokane Daily Chronicle, Sonora said, “He was both father and mother to me and my brothers and sisters.”

Smart’s story is a fascinating one.

He was born on June 5, 1842 in Crawford County, Arkansas. On the 1850 census for Marion, in Crawford County, Ark., head of household is Wharton R. Bowen age 21. Laban Smart, age 40, is living there as well as Polly D. Smart, age 28, Martha A., age 11 and William J. age 8. Later William listed his father as William J. Smart so maybe Laban was not his father but just a relative William and his sister Martha lived with.

In 1860 in Marion now in Sebastian Co., Ark. Mary Robinson, age 33 is head with Martha Smart, age 21 and William Smart age 17 - no idea who Mary Robinson was. All are listed as Carriers on farm.

Civil War

William enlisted as a Private in Company C of the Arkansas 35 Infantry Regiment according to the Confederate Military Records. While driving a supply wagon for Confederate troops, William was captured in the Battle of Pea Ridge, a decisive Union victory near Fayetteville, Arkansas, in March 1862. Rather than languish longer in a prisoner of war camp, he opted to join the Union cause. He enlisted as a Sergeant in the Arkansas 1st Light Union Artillery Battery on March 21, 1863. Thus his daughter, Sonora, became a member of both the United Daughters of the Confederacy and the Daughters of Union Veterans.

Marriage to Elizabeth

In 1865 William married Elizabeth Harris. Mary (maybe named after his sister Mary Robinson?) was born in 1866, and Martha (1867), Luida (1869), William J.(1872), Susan (1873), and Annie (1877). Elizabeth died in 1878 leaving 6 young children.

Marriage to Ellen

In January 18, 1880, William married Ellen Victoria Cheek (born 1851), the widow of James Thomas Billingsley and the mother of John, James, and Liuary - all under the age of 9. In the 1880 census William and Victoria, their combined eight children William’s widowed sister Martha A. McClain and her 4 year old daughter, Nora, were all living together on a farm in Marion, Sebastian Co. Arkansas.

When Sonora was born in 1882, William and his second wife Ellen were living on a “coal ranch” in Jenny Lind, Ark. Instead of mining coal, William and the family “farmed” it, collecting chunks of coal from the surface and carting it to town for sale. William and Ellen sold the property in 1887 for $5,000—a very handsome sum at the time—and the family traveled by train to a new homestead outside of Spokane. (The farm in Arkansas would turn out to be one of the most productive coal fields in the entire nation.)

William and Ellen had Charlie (1883), twins George and Henry(1885), Marshall (1888)) before they moved to Washington where Ellen died in childbirth with Fred in 1891. William’s family was in Custon in Lincoln Co. Washington in 1900. Sonora helped her father raise her siblings.

In 1910, Sonora brought a petition before the Spokane Ministerial Alliance to recognize the courage and devotion of all fathers like William on June 5, her dad’s birthday. The local clergy liked the idea of a special Father's Day service, but they could pull something together so quickly, so they held it on June 19.

On that first Father's Day in 1910, church sermons across Spokane were dedicated to dear old dad, red and white roses were passed out in honor of living and deceased fathers, the mayor of Spokane and governor of Washington issued proclamations, and Sonora found her calling. She would spend much of the next 60 years pushing for the official recognition of Father's Day as a national holiday. Sonora won the support of her congressmen, who began to lobby for the creation of a national holiday.

In 1916, President Woodrow Wilson celebrated Father's Day in Spokane during a visit to Washington. "We don't know if William Jackson Smart was there to shake the president's hand, but it would have been one of his last Father's Days. William died in 1919," noted Roos.

Much more than a Father's Day booster, Sonora Smart Dodd was an accomplished artist, poet, children's book author, funeral home director, and founding member of just about every civic organization in Spokane. But she never let go of her determination to give fathers like hers the recognition they deserved.

President Lyndon Johnson issued the first presidential proclamation honoring fathers in 1966, but it wasn't until 1972, six years before Sonora's death at the age of 96, that President Richard Nixon finally signed a Congressional resolution declaring the third Sunday in June to be Father's Day. "Her dad, no doubt, would have been proud," commented Roos.

In addition to Roos' article, I did research online at Wikipedia, Ancestry, and Heritage Quest. Thanks to all who did their research so we can learn. - Polly Horn.

Day*

For Children's Children Writers' Group

Anyone interested in writing their memories for their children's children may join the group via Zoom at 10 a.m. Tuesday mornings.

Two of the group are journaling in books they purchased for that end. The rest of us are writing in steno- notebooks or typing on our computers.

Writers may follow Bob Greene's book or join us as we try to write weekly. We share our writings which help others to think of good memories they might otherwise forget.

The process is a good way to put the virus away for a while and remember those things that are important to make us who we are.

If you are interested, send an email to Polly Horn at Pollyho@columbus.rr.com and you get a zoom link on the Monday before the Zoom meeting..
