

Condit Courier

June 2022

Rob Zverina and wife Sarah Kavage, visiting from Seattle, Sandy Thacker, Jenny and Bill Kavage, Marianne Westbrook and Georgann Whitney served 61 families consisting of 250 people at the Lutheran Social Services on May 20 and logged in 21 hours for the Easter People Challenge

When the Scioto Presbytery issued the Easter People Challenge to all the congregations, Condit’s Missions Chairperson, Marianne Westbrook began looking for short term projects where Condit can serve those who hunger, those who thirst, those who are sick, those who are strangers, those who are imprisoned or those who are naked.

Hats and Diapers for Premature Babies

Lynda O’Quinn is making hats, diapers, and blankets for the babies and hearts (for the mother to wear to give her scent to the new baby) to be used with premature babies in Children’s Hospital.

Four from Condit went to People In Need (PIN) in Delaware to assemble boxes to be used at collection sites.

Rev. Annie Is Leaving After the Special Congregational Meeting on May 29th to Dissolve Her Call to Condit

After serving Condit for the past 6.5 years Rev. Annie is moving on to Eaton, Ohio, to continue her ministry. She reminded us Condit is strong and will be able to attract a good pastor. There will be a light farewell lunch for the Melicks following Worship and the Congregational Meeting on the 29th.

Yvonne Gustafson from Presbytery has been assigned to help us with the Pastoral Search process.

Meanwhile we need to give Session and Trustees all the support we can as we go through the selection process.

Coming Soon. . .

Vacation Bible School June 26-30

Pam Sheets and Sandy Thacker are organizing VBS for Condit this summer. They chose “Food Truck Party - On a Roll with God” as the theme.

This year the program will be in the evenings from Sunday thru Wednesday 6:30 to 8:30. On Thursday the hours are 6:00 to 8:30 so the group can eat together. Anyone willing to help with the food should contact Pam or Sandy.

Be sure to let Sandy and Pam know if there is anything you are willing to do to help with Bible School. More hands will make the task easier.

A Fond Farewell

from Rev. Annie Melick

I began my ministry with Condit Presbyterian Church on November 16, 2015. My ministry here ends on May 31, 2022. It has been a rich 6 ½ years. It has been an honor to be your pastor and I pray that you will continue to grow in your faith, your love for God, and your love for one another.

We will be moving to Eaton, Ohio where I will be the Pastor of First Presbyterian Church. Our new home will be in the community of Lake Lakengren, just south of Eaton.

While our church polity requires that I cut all pastoral ties with Condit, I will continue to pray for you and welcome updates on your family news from time to time. As you enter this transition period as a congregation, your Session will be working closely with a representative from the Presbytery of Scioto Valley to keep the ministry of the church in motion, and to do the work needed as you seek your next pastor. You will receive regular updates from Session.

Good-byes are so hard, so let me close by saying, “see you later!” I pray this blessing for you, written by Beth A. Richardson in her book Christ Beside Me, Christ Within Me: Celtic Blessings.

May You Know Love

Today, may you know love.
May you know happiness.
May you know peace.

Today, may you be open.
May you be safe.
May you be blessed.

Today, may you feel uplifted.
May you feel serene.
May you feel joy.

A thousand, thousand prayers,
A thousand, thousand blessings,
On you, and you, and you.

Prayers

Faith Filled Women

Faith Filled Women will meet June 10 in St. John Neumann Church at 11 am. For lunch followed by a program provided by women from The Bridge Church.

Condit Women's Circle

Women's Circle met on Wednesday, May 18th for lunch in the Fellowship Hall. The group was led by Maryann Counts in the study of Psalm 121. They also learned about the Song of Ascents - Psalms 120 - 134.

Women's Circle will take a summer break and get back together on September 21 at noon.
